Teens, parties and alcohol: A practical guide to keeping them safe

Teenage parties provide young people with valuable opportunities to develop social skills that help them relate effectively with their peers. As children get older, alcohol is likely to be used at these social gatherings.

Using the latest research, this session will explore alcohol use by young people including its use at parties. It will also provide parents/carers with practical strategies and simple tips to use when allowing their teen to attend parties to help ensure they are as safe as possible.

Date:

Thursday 21st September

Time:

6.30pm-8.00pm
(registrations from 6.15pm)

Where:

Applecross Senior High School Performing Arts Centre, Ardessie Street, Ardross
